Notice Regarding Legislative Changes in 2023 Legislative Session

Pursuant to the 2023 Legislative Session of the Indiana General Assembly, the Indiana Gaming Commission provides notice of the following changes relating to Qualified Organizations and the conduct of their allowable activities.

Effective July 1, 2023, Qualified Organizations may accept payment by credit card for the purchase of a chance to enter a raffle or water race at an allowable activity, as long as the transaction is made face-to-face and not through the internet. See Indiana Code § 4-32.3-5-23(c). Sales made through the internet, as well as sales made through electronic payment processing applications (such as Venmo, Zelle, CashApp, Block, etc.) remain prohibited. Qualified organizations accepting credit card payments should ensure that the associated fees from credit card payment processors are accurately reported as expenses on all financial reports required by the Commission.

Additionally, effective July 1, 2023, the maximum selling price for a pull tab, punchboard, or tip board game has been increased from One Dollar ($1) to Five Dollars ($5). See Indiana Code § 4-32.3-5-16(c).
